"I am exploring a candidacy for elected office. Your contribution is a measure of grassroots support for my potential candidacy. If I formally declare as a candidate, I will use your contribution for my campaign. I may use the contribution as a qualifying contribution if I opt to participate in the clean elections campaign finance system. If this campaign is unsuccessful, if I change my campaign to run as a traditional candidate, or if a duplicate donation is received, this contribution will be retained by the candidate and may be applied as a traditional donation or early contribution as allowed by campaign finance laws. By making this contribution to a Corporation Commission candidate, I am certifying in writing that I am not an owner, officer, director, or employee of a public service corporation nor of a party with a pending case before the Corporation Commission"
